Ref.: E.A.N.A. - Conference on Group Practice in Europe
Prague, June 13, 1992

Dear Mr. President,

We have the pleasure to send you enclosed the program of the above mentioned conference organized by E.A.N.A. - European Working Group of General Practitioners and Specialists in Private Practice in Prague, on June 13, 1992.

The E.A.N.A. was founded in 1974 with the aim to provide a complete and detailed exchange of information and experiences on out-patient care of the European health care systems and conditions of professional medical exercise and to improve structures of out-patient care as well as professional exercise and to adapt them to the needs of society.

A documentation on the work E.A.N.A. will be mailed to you separately.

The aim of the above mentioned conference is to provide information on the various conceptions of group practice in different European countries according to the health care systems as well as subjects such as management and financing being of interest to physicians.

Should you wish to participate in the meeting you are most welcome to do so.

Yours sincerely,

Ute H. Leutloff-Simons
